Geoff Southby

Geoff Southby - 268 games for Carlton, 2 premierships, AFL Hall of Fame, member of Carlton's Team of the Century and one of the games hardest and best defenders.

From Bendigo, he had to start for Carlton, in 1971 taking over Wes Lofts' position and number (20) and won Carlton's Best and Fairest in his first 2 years. He played his 200th game under coach Percy Jones in 1980 and missed both the 81 & 82 premiership sides due to injury. He retired in '83 at age 33.

Geoff continued his direct involvement in the game for some years including 3 years as a specialist coach with Fitzroy.
