

THE ODD FRIDAY LUNCH

Anson Cameron

Friday 25th May 1:05pm

Please email organiser@TheOddFridayLunch.com.au with attendee names

Anson Cameron is a writer, humourist and Age columnist. He was born (1961) and brought up in Shepparton, but went to Geelong Grammar.

He has written numerous critically acclaimed novels including - Silences Long Gone (about Aboriginal Land Rights), Tin Toys, Confessin' the Blues, The Last Pulse (a very funny story about the Rivers of Australia), Lies I Told about a Girl, BoyHoodlum (an unreliable memoir about growing up in Shepparton), Stealing Picasso (a fiction about the actual theft of a Picasso from the National Gallery of Vic in 1986) and Here is a Boar's Left One.

Anson is a very funny man, with many stories. Along with John Harms this should be another very entertaining Footy Almanac lunch.

$45 + Drinks

MENU

Entree – Carrot Orange & Ginger Soup with Dill Cream.

Mains – Veal Osso Bucco with Celeriac Puree or

Thai Red Curry, Asian Greens and Lemongrass Rice.

Dessert – Cheese Platter with Apple & Quince.

The Footy Almanac
Sport. Write from the heart.

Phone 03 9486 4501

www.northfitzroyarms.com.au

www.theoddfridaylunch.com.au

North Fitzroy Arms

296 Rae Street North Fitzroy 3068