

THE ODD FRIDAY LUNCH

Paul Kennedy

Friday 11th May 1:05pm

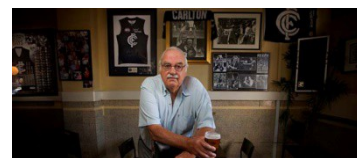

Please email organiser@TheOddFridayLunch.com.au with attendee names

Paul Kennedy is an author, journalist and presenter with ABC Television. He has worked in news & current affairs for 3 TV networks, and currently presents sports, and sometimes co hosts, the popular morning program News Breakfast.

He is an AFL enthusiast - he played VFL & QAFL and is a youth coach.

He has written 4 very topical books - he co-authored a book on sexual abuse in the Catholic Church - Hell On The Way To Heaven, High Stakes about the rise of The Waterhouse Dynasty, Storm Cloud - Melbourne Storm's Demise & Resurrection, and Fifteen Young Men about the 15 men from the Mornington Football Club who died in the tragic sinking of the Process off the Mornington Peninsula in 1892. He also wrote and directed a short film finalist in the 2008 Melbourne International Film Festival about drugs in Football, Drug Game.

He will be a very interesting guest, along with our popular MC John Harms.
